Our Background

SKT Welfare is a UK registered charity that aims to deliver humanitarian aid to underserved populations in need, without prejudice over race, religion or gender. Over the past decade we have delivered multiple projects, focusing on emergency relief, food, water, healthcare, education, orphan care and seasonal campaigns, such as winter and Qurbani. We operate in many countries around the world including Syria, Bangladesh, Palestine, Somalia, Pakistan, Yemen and Turkey with its head office in the UK.

We are proud of our 100% donation policy, which means every single penny donated is used to directly serve those in need. Our overhead costs are covered either by direct donations or by using Gift Aid. This policy sets us apart from most international NGOs and is the guiding principle of our organisation.

- Vision: "A world where everyone is being cared for and live a sustainable life free from extreme poverty".
- Mission: To be amongst the leading humanitarian organisations to alleviate human suffering through principled humanitarian responses and sustainable solutions.
- Values: Compassion towards the people we assist and those we work with. SKT is committed to show compassion and respect for the different needs and cultures it encounters in order to create a better world around us and a thriving working environment.

Transparency and Accountability- when working with different stakeholders and partners both in the UK and abroad, SKT commits to high levels of transparency for all its operations and put accountability to donors and the beneficiaries at the core its work.

Equality - as an equality-committed charity, SKT does not discriminate on the basis of gender, race, nationality, age, religion, disability or beliefs.

We believe our employees are our greatest asset and recognise our responsibility to ensure that they are afforded appropriate development throughout their employment. Our aim is to support and develop employees in their role so that they feel confident to undertake the responsibilities placed upon them, and ultimately are able to contribute to the success of the organisation.
